GLOBAL GOV'T ALERT: Threat to national sovereignty set to go down May 22-28 at WHO World Health Assembly

The World Health Organization is attempting a 'power grab' — quietly setting up a single globalized response to all future 'health emergencies'

As previously reported at LeoHohmann.com, the deep state predators in the U.S. and Western governments have decided the world needs a centralized pandemic response controlled and run by the United Nations World Health Organization via an international treaty.

According to the WHO's website, on March 30, 2021, 25 world leaders announced an "urgent call for an International Pandemic Treaty," stating that such a treaty is needed to orchestrate a single globalized response to pandemics. These "25 heads of government and international leaders" have come together in a joint call to form the treaty.

Don't forget that Yuval Noah Harari, the chief advisor to Klaus Schwab and the World Economic Forum, has stated that globalist elites will use "crises" to bring about world government.

"Catastrophe opens the door" to massive changes that people would otherwise never accept, Harari said.

But even more pressing than the treaty itself right now, is something almost no one is paying attention to in U.S. political, religious or media circles, and that involves a set of amendments that will amend an existing treaty, the International Health Regulations. The U.S. government has submitted amendments to 13 articles within those regulations, which are administered by the WHO, and these amendments are seen by many as sovereignty killers.

A UN report from May 2021 called for more powers for the WHO stating that, "In its current form, the WHO does not possess such powers […]To move on with the treaty, WHO therefore needs to be empowered — financially, and politically."

The WHO will be hosting its annual meeting, the 75th World Health Assembly, May 22-28 in Geneva, Switzerland, attended by delegates from at least 194 nations. It is during this Assembly that members will be voting on the amendments that will hand over additional sovereignty, control and legal authority to the World Health Organization. The WHO, if these amendments are approved, will obtain the authority to declare an international health emergency, overriding national governments.

Here is the document with the proposed amendments submitted by the U.S. federal government. Pay particular attention to Article 12: Section 2 on page 8 of the document.

In a sense, the global infrastructure to declare a globalized response to a pandemic was already in place in 2020 and 2021, when many of the strictest lockdowns were advised by the WHO and most nations went along with them. But if this "update" of the International Health Regulations is adopted, the WHO will be given "teeth" in the form of an enforcement mechanism. If that happens, Katy bar the door because the lockdowns will become even more strict and more frequent. Think about the possibilities for a "climate" lockdown.

This means nations will be giving up their sovereignty and rights to control their own healthcare, handing that authority over to an international organization affiliated with the United Nations and run by tyrants like Dr. Tedros.

James Roguski, a researcher and activist who has been studying these amendments, has referred to them as a "five alarm fire" that must be dealt with or they will become part of international law.

These regulations govern the activity of the U.N. World Health Organization.

He says the core of these proposed changes go back to China. Watch the video below:

In the video, Roguski states:

> "Whatever we think happened in Wuhan in 2020, the WHO seems to be of the mindset that none of what came afterwards would have happened if they had only been given the power to unilaterally declare an emergency and override the Chinese opposition…. We're saying it's an emergency. We're going to lock everybody down. We're stepping in… They want to grab power. They're changing article 12, section 2 (of the International Health Regulations) and it effectively wipes out 192 nations' sovereignty to decide whether or not they allow an international organization to step in."

It is important to note that the International Pandemic Treaty will be far more expansive in its scope than these amendments, but these amendments are more urgent because they will be voted on next month.

And no U.S. politician is talking about this. Nor is any mainstream media outlet reporting on it. No pastors that I know of are alerting their congregations to these monumental, some would say biblical, changes.

Roguski set up the website DontYouDare.info to document the drive to establish this one-world health system. The following points are his summary of the draft amendments:

- The International Health Regulations would be legally binding and supersede the United States Constitution.
- The United States has proposed amendments to the legally binding International

Health Regulations that will be voted upon at the next World Health Assembly May 22-28. CLICK HERE FOR OFFICIAL DOCUMENT

- These proposed amendments will cede additional sovereignty, control and legal authority over to the World Health Organization.
- These amendments will NOT require approval by 2/3 of the United States Senate. If they are approved (as submitted by the United States) by a simple majority of the 194 member countries of the World Health Assembly countries), these amendments would enter into force as international law just six months later (November 2022). The details of this are not crystal clear.
- It is not known if the amendments will be voted upon individually or as a complete package.
- The amendments would give the director general of the WHO the power to unilaterally declare a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) even over the objection of the country dealing with an outbreak of disease. (See Article 12, Section 2 of the IHR document where this change is proposed.)
- A unilateral declaration of a PHEIC by the WHO will enable the declaration of a Public Health Emergency by the U.S. Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services.
- The amendments proposed by the United States would also give the director general of the WHO the legal authority to unilaterally issue an "intermediate public health alert (IPHA)." The criteria for the issuance of an IPHA is simply that "the Director-General has determined it requires heightened international awareness and a potential international public health response."
- The amendments would also give "regional directors" within the WHO the legal authority to declare a Public Health Emergency of Regional Concern (PHERC).

Once you take away national sovereignty and start holding America up against a global standard, that opens up endless opportunities for the elites running the global system to regulate, or confiscate, whatever they believe is "bad for our health."

What if the WHO decides we all need jabs and digital passports to address a public health emergency? Wait a minute, the WHO has already decided that! All it lacks is the power to override national governments. These amendments would grant such power.

These amendments, along with a future treaty, could also be used to take away Americans' First and Second Amendment rights. What about the Bible? Is it a matter of your religious faith or is it a tool for "hate speech?" Guns, the Bible and too much free speech are bad for our collective "health" and therefore could be declared an international or regional emergency, providing a pathway for the WHO to apply regulations.

Kit Knightly, in an article for Off Guardian, also raises the question of countries being punished for "non-compliance" under a new global health treaty. According to the WHO documents:

"[The treaty should possess] An adaptable incentive regime, [including] sanctions such as public reprimands, economic sanctions, or denial of benefits."

In other words, Knightly explains:

- If you report "disease outbreaks" in a "timely manner", you will get "financial resources" to deal with them.
- If you don't report disease outbreaks, or don't follow the WHO's directions, you will lose out on international aid and face trade embargoes and sanctions.

As Patrick Wood reminds us, harsh punishments were already meted out during the Covid pandemic.

"The presidents of Burundi and Tanzania banned the WHO from their borders, refusing to go along with the pandemic narrative: Both died unexpectedly within months and were replaced with pro-WHO Presidents," Wood writes. "Obviously, the WHO doesn't care about global health or the life or death of any particular citizen. The warning has been sent out to national leaders: take our deal or we will eliminate you."

This is a spiritual war, and we are living in a time when all of the prayer warriors must be engaged and called into battle. Pray for people's eyes to be opened and all deceptions and delusions to be smashed in the name of Jesus Christ.

I believe an international coup of 196 countries has gone down with the signing of the International Health Regulations Treaty by the 196 countries in question. The International Health Regulations Treaty is a component of the BioSecurity Act and forbids all un-vaxxed from travel under this treaty. This Treat/Act has nothing to do with the emergency powers/E.U.A. Just saying. http://www.grand-jury.net second session near the end with the two witnesses from the W.H.O. The woman from Austria tells us about this Treaty and puts it in perspective for us. Our police and military fall under this treaty and that is why we can not get them to protect Canada and Candians as is the case with all the other countries as well. They intend to starve us. This I believe. Be Blessed.

I think we should stop thinking about America or our culture and focus on our individual neighbors in the time that lies ahead. Our own underground economy would help a lot.
Praying already. On the positive side a lot of people I know are suddenly becoming Christian. Or at least questioning their secularism.
Great time to finish the Great Commission. May He find us faithful.
We can't let them lock us down ala Shang Hai without a fight. Massive civil disobedience on a local level where people know what's wrong. To comply would be a sin against our neighbor.

Thanks Rachel, and very well said!…. But finding many neighbors to love and Care for as Ourselves is kind of hard to find. Everyone is still to damn afraid to really let go of this damn "Sheeple-mentality' and Talk About what's going on!…… " Ohhhh just wait until November and the Repubs are back!" or…."WWG1WGA! And Donald Trump will BE BACK in 2024!".....or…"Don't Worry! Biden is Only Playing dumb!"……..
The 'Feeling' of Normalcy' and Everything's gonna be AOK is part of the STRONG-DELUSION in which we've been programmed into over the years!…. Nobody wants to Give Up their American Dream, Nobody wants to give up the "ME…ME…ME" State of mind……. Last but Not least too many refuse to believe in a GOD ABOVE to turn to and ask (PRAY) for help!

I remember a story about how people were told the Titanic had hit an iceberg and they needed to prepare. Many of the lifeboats were half empty. Lots of empty seats that could have saved lives. Too many of the passengers decided the lifeboats looked chilly and uncomfortable. Maybe not seaworthy. They stayed aboard the sinking liner–until it was too late.

Thank you, Leo, for this post. Since a few weeks ago when I first read of this horror, I am Praying that it is stopped. But as we all know now we have no elected leaders doing their job of representing the people, us, at all times. Every sovereign nation should oppose this, as our lead representative (head of Health and Human Services) to this criminal affair should do–and actually already be fully opposed to. What value does our constitution have? Certainly, not this. How is any of this legal? The brave leaders who were killed knew whom they defended: the people who elected them to stand for them, as they did. I believe also they had Faith and no fear of death. So all these 192 leaders even going to this criminal affair should know better–and do better; they have models. Heavenly Father Bless us all the world over as we do what we can–as Dr. David Martin et al are doing with the recently filed lawsuit to have these mass-murdering felons dealt with–if the court will also do its job. The UN and WHO should abolished eternally from the entire world

I suppose that the triumphalists and "positive thinkers" will watch the guy in line in front of them getting guillotined and still think that the mark (scar) of the seed of the serpent can't be here yet.
Please consider that the Beast is indeed the seed of the serpent and he has a venomous

Amen Gayle. Remember Psalm 91 and Psalm 23 too. There is also a verse in one of the Psalms that states that I have never seen the righteous foresaken; nor his seed begging bread. Many other comforting and edifying scriptures in the Holy Bible. Also there's a verse in Psalms that states that many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivered him out of them all. Knowing that God will deliver His faithful is more important that knowing how or when He will do it.

The alarming news seem never-ending these days. Just thought about that verse in Isaiah that says, thou shalt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee.

God is true to His word. That's why I don't live in anxiety, worry and fear over the workers of iniquity. I treasure safety and stability and am concerned about good health, shelter and survival as much as the next person. However, we have been told (those who will listen) to seek ye first the Kingdom Of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you. (Matthew 6:33).

Though we may go through trials sometimes through no fault of our own. There is no doubt in my mind that God's will preserve His people regardless of what the devil or his followers attempt or actually pull off. I am always looking for a Red Sea moment from God. Even if it means exiting this dimension.

Lord Jesus declared that as it was in the apostate days of Noah's flooded world, so it will be when He returns to Satan's reset world to judge it in the refining fire of His unquenchable wrath. At the Bridegroom's second coming He will find a small remnant of wise virgins in His holy Bride who have purified themselves by coming out of Socialism's abominable Security System, in obedience to His Revelation 18:4 commandment. Christ Jesus prays for His virgin Bride, that her eyes be opened to wisely discern the humanist thoughtcrime delusions of the Marxist Beast's Orwellian Social Gospel, and that she hatefully smash them all underfoot. Christ Jesus does not pray for the foolish virgins whose digitally-marked souls idolatrously find salvation, as dependent wards, within Satan's Socialistic Security System (John 17:9).

I am a medical coder and have witnessed a lot these last 2 years. My question is, do we know if anyone has looked into the reporting of Covid-19 per the CMS (centers for Medicare and Medicaid services) guidelines? Coders are required to follow guidelines per CMS. My background is Urgent Care Coding and Emergency Department Coding, I have fine tooth combed previous and recent guidelines that have come out by CMS and have come to a conclusion that if a health facility receives payment from Medicare or Medicaid they are under a blanket waiver (CMS 1135 Waiver). Now, if you allow me to elaborate a little, this is significant to the fraud and abuse of medical facilities and physicians during the pandemic. Government funded payments, are paid out much quicker than private insurance and also guarantee payment. Physcians and Presidents of our large facilities know this. Per current guidelines, any Covid-19 test given during a visit require Modifier DR (disaster related) and CS (cost sharing), this is not just exclusive to government forms of payment, all charts when a test is administered are required to add these and in return the government will pay the claim. Z208.22- which means exposure to Covid-19 and since Covid-19 is in the 'community' all claims with a test no matter the result get this code and the government pays out. We have all seen the stories of patients coming in for symptoms totally unrelated to any Covid-19 related and when documents are reviewed Covid-19 is listed as the primary diagnosis. Per CMS guidelines any positive test result, if it meets the requirements for primary listed diagnosis should be reported first. Also physicians have full discretion with Covid-19, they do not need a positive test result to diagnosis Covid-19, if they think they have, they list it. Big green dollar signs in they eyes of all our medical professionals who have not stood against the Covid-19 Plandemic, they lined the pockets for themselves as well as the Elites, who run the organizations from which our guidelines to document medical claims comes from. To note: April 1, 2022 3 new ICD-10 diagnosis codes will be added to define the vaccination status of patients and again per CMS guidelines for tacking purposes only. The whole process for classifying disease is ruined.

Praying for you!

Too much corruption in the medical industrial complex. From the looks of things the corruption in the MIC has increased exponentially since the early 1900″s. And appears to be growing more lawless and corrupt as the days go by. I'm not sure I would look to conventional medicine even as a last resort for healing these days.

By no means am I railing or making accusations against the many good men and women who work within the healthcare industry at different levels. Spiritual wickedness appears to be at the top of the pyramid in every major or minor industry worldwide. Including governments and most if not every other organization of every type.

Unfortunately, there are too many authoritarian psychopaths alive, who demand and have decided that they will have complete authority over the earth and every living creature in it. They refuse to acknowledge that the earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof. His will will be done on earth as it is in heaven! That's why I neither worry or fret.

Why aren't the bastard corrupt Congresspersons, governors, and the moronic Trump speaking out about this democidal end-run around the US Constitution? Where are the poseurs like Senators Rand Paul and Ron Johnson? Where are the shameful silent RINOs? Where are the brainwashed criminals like Steven Spielberg, Elton John, Mick Jagger, The Nation Magazine, Rolling Stone, and Hollywood? Even Orwell and Huxley couldn't have imagined such a quick totalitarian revamp of society. This outrage, if it comes to pass, will basically mean that sociopathic mass murderer Bill Gates and his bought-and-paid for WHO bitch, Tedros Ghebreyesus, will get to jab you with genetic poisons as many times as they like, and as-and-when they choose. choose. Thank you, Leo, for being the faithful watchman on the wall who has alerted the sleeping virgins (Matthew 25:5).

And out of the smoke, locusts descended on the earth, and they were given power like that of the scorpions of the earth. They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree, but only those who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. The locusts were not given the power to kill them, but only to torment them for five months, and their torment was like the stinging of a scorpion. In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, but death will escape them.

Every evil scheme that globalists mention these days sounds exactly as how life on earth will be during the great tribulation period. It's like these folks can't wait to get it started. If they knew the scriptures, they would realize that the great tribulation period will be the beginning of their destructive end.

If I'm still alive on earth when the devil and his minions are having a field day 24/7. I hope God will consider me worthy to be preserved with the people mentioned in Revelation Chapter 12, Verse 6. That will be one group of people that will be untouchable by Satan and the globalists during their world-wide reign of terror for 1,260 days (3.5 years). Just learned today that Abraham observed years in 360 day increments. Whatever who believes or actually knows about the time referred to as Jacob's trouble mentioned in Jeremiah 30:7. The most important thing to me at the end of the day is that I am counted worthy to escape it. Whether dead or alive.

I especially liked your last paragraph. This is (and always has been) a spiritual war and all of us need to gird up our loins, for lack of a better term.

Seems like we sure are living in Revelation 13 days. There, we have the beast, the second beast, and the image to the beast which the second beast makes. It is the image that ends up persecuting God's people. It's interesting that the WHO just "needs to be empowered – financially and politically", which is starting to sound an awful lot like the image to the beast which needs the second beast to "give life to the image of the beast," and it is that image that both speaks (which an entity does through its laws and policies) and causes all that do not take the mark that they should be killed. The "image to the beast" will be able to do what Revelation 13 says only if it has financial and political power, world-wide in scope, which will give it the resources and the teeth it needs to do what the rulers of the darkness of this world want.

Regardless whether the WHO is the image to the beast referred to in Revelation chapter 13 or not (totally conjecture on my part, but I'm trying to be forward thinking here), it is certainly looking for the empowerment to rule the world.

And yet, it does not seem to me that the Restrainer has not been removed, how very weird. Yes, this is British cynicism, because even meantioning Revelation 13 is enough to frighten so many Christians these days who do not know the Bible well, so why do it?

"This is a spiritual war, and we are living in a time when all of the prayer warriors must be engaged and called into battle. Pray for people's eyes to be opened and all deceptions and delusions to be smashed in the name of Jesus Christ." – Thank goodness you, seemingly, have at last, seen the light. It would be brilliant if this last paragraph were put at the end of all your blogs because it is sorely needed to gete our eyes off the challenges and see the One Who is in control and focus on Him. Trust in the Lord will all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him and He will direct your paths.

Some people love to get digs in, even when they seem to be giving a compliment. God gives us wisdom upon the asking, without upbraiding us. Please note the phrase "without upbraiding us." Some have the ability to see the dandelion in every manicured lawn. I can only hope to eventually have the spiritual maturity to "see the light" as clearly as some folks do.

Christ has given His holy Bride the ability to see the dandelion tare in every manicured lawn (i.e. the metastasizing cancer cell in His holy body-Temple). I prayerfully desire for God to graciously give me the spiritual maturity to "see the light" of His holy will as clearly as Joshua and Peter.

Joshua 7:19— So Joshua upbraided Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and make a confession to Him. I urge you to tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me." "Why have you brought this trouble upon us?" said Joshua. "Today the LORD will bring trouble upon you!" And all Israel stoned him to death. Then they stoned the others and burned their bodies. And they heaped over Achan a large pile of rocks that remains to this day. So the LORD turned from His burning anger.

Acts 5:1— Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property. With his wife's full knowledge, he kept back some of the proceeds for himself, but brought a portion and laid it at the apostles' feet. Then Peter upbraided Ananias and Sapphira, "how is it that Satan has filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and withhold some of the proceeds from the land? How could you conceive such a deed in your hearts? You have not lied to men, but to God!" On hearing these upbraiding words, Ananias and his wife fell down and died. And great fear came over all who heard what had happened.

Remember that the revision of United Nations of Who treaty by the USA fits with "white supremacy" as a public health crisis, that is why pandemic is not needed. That is why agreement of the sovereign country is out before the 2022. Remember, UN TROOPS allegedly put down the trucker Canada protest. Other "health" games could be "misinformation" or " disinformation" and why the Musk said everything but the "illegal" could be exploited. This could be bait to get info. Do not forget Hillary's "camps for adults" re-education. Hitler changed laws against Jews Christian gypsies, homosexuals, useless eaters. They had kidnapping grey nurses of children who were blond and blue eyed. "Climate change denial" could be a health crisis. As Abortion as a Eminem's health crisis.

This is what the end looks like.
The shape of the end.
Lots of people consenting, because they are segregated.
No collective strenght.
Booh, thats Communism!
But it could also be a Nation!
Or a Church!
Do you see how fooled you are.
You can not even bond anymore!
Just sitting there, over your key-board.
So okay, what to do?
Be the ones that support the one who hindereth the Anti-Christ.
Confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, and bond like-minded, and preach the Word.

Leo, we may want to think our Congress knows our constitution. But does any one of them know even a little of it? If they did, how could they let the US already be a signatory to that 2005 International Health Regulations (IHR) which supersedes the constitution? This upcoming event is just a complete signing away of our rights–and that of other countries. And how could our Congress be sending amendments to this thing when they should be saying, No way do our people want this. They should have no part in it. US lead representative Health and Human Services secretary should have already made this clear. As Heavenly Father Wills, we do every bit we can to protect us–and everyone the world over. We stay in Prayer, and we are thankful for your efforts, Leo, to keep us informed. Attorney James Roguski has our thanks also for his diligent reporting of this significant news. I Pray Father keeps Blessing you and us all as we do our share.

Obsession with safety causes mental illness. Paranoia is being fomented in the schools and the workplace where adults and children are being taught to put an over emphasis on ' health and safety' .

The result is that people are cowering at the behest of the health gurus who dictate what is good for the people.

Persistent fear/paranoia over rides people's critical thinking so that they become unable to resist the health and safety narrative.
I've stopped telling people that I'm not vaccinated because when I tell people they are visibly struck with fear. Many people have developed Stockholm syndrome and are now obedient slaves to their captors.

People are being numbed by the 'crises' narrative that is being used to corral the fearful and to keep them in a state of obedience.
So watch out for that word 'CRISES' . I reckon that we'll be hearing it a lot in the future as various engineered crises are rolled out Food crises , fuel crises, health crises , cyber crises, climate crises, immigration crises. I believe that as these crises mount with increased momentum, people will be so traumatised that they will blindly comply to an ever increasing destruction of their liberties.

We must be careful not to become anxious so that we don't lose our critical thinking ability.

Stay strong brethren and trust in God.

Good points Anthony. 2 Timothy 1:7 – For God has not given us a spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. People who live in a perpetual state of fear are probably no better off than those who worry night and day.

I think I've grown accustomed to the never-ending fear mongering since 2020. It appears that the fear-generating man-made crisis and diseases will continue until Jesus returns to the earth. Even more amazing to me is that no amount of loss, death or suffering will convince some people that they are being lied to and deceived, by the very people they think care about their welfare. Over and over again until they are ultimately destroyed in most cases.

Stockholm Syndrome may be involved. But I fear there is also idolatry.

The churches that opened soonest or never closed trusted in God more than men in lab coats. Western medicine was a good thing once. But–like the bronze serpent God used to heal poisoned Hebrews in the wilderness–it has become an idol. We have come to the point where we need to smash it.

Hello Rachel. As you probably know, Hypocrites is reckoned to be the founder of modern medicine which doesn't interpret disease as being caused by spiritual phenomena. I don't see idolatry in western medicine. I see man trusting in man made technology and drugs with no spiritual considerations whatsoever.
On the surface, many people have benefitted from the medical system and from certain medications but unfortunately those institutions which have been entrusted to keep the nations healthy, have been hijacked and are now actively being used to cull the human population, in my opinion.

People have developed a trust in the medical profession which is one reason why they cant be objective and see what is unfolding.

People might hold the medical profession in high esteem but I don't see anybody prostrating themselves before Fauci.
They are scared and believe Fauci along with the schil professors and big pharma are looking after their best interests. Sadly this trust is being exploited to the detriment of it's victims.

You can make an idol of something without erecting shrines or burning incense.

Which is more important to someone? Obeying Christ? Or following "the Science"?
In a site I used to follow–Mad In America–we criticized a trend called Scientism. When Science becomes a religion. The doctors and scientists are its priests and the ignorant masses obey them superstitiously. One of life's ironies is when you turn anything into an idol, it loses its original goodness. Science is no longer based on objective reality, but has become Scientism–our new state religion we must all blindly follow. Complete with talismans (ceremonial masks and ritualistic oblations) and shamans we must venerate and obey.
A lot of people who don't worship Fauci still worship what he represents. He is their high priest and go-between. Interceding with the great god SCIENCE on behalf of the people. Granting them salvation of the flesh–since even the church goers among them don't seem concerned about the other kind.
I can't remember his exact words, but Dr. Uval Noah Harari gloated, "Religious people shut their churches down when science told them to." Give the devil his due. They certainly did. The cowards and the unbelieving. Revelation 21:8

RE: The LORD said to Moses, "If you will listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in His eyes, and pay attention to His commands, and keep all His statutes, then I will not bring on you any of the diseases I inflicted on the Egyptians. For I am the LORD who heals you." Exodus 15:26

Now the rest of the idolatrous acts of Asa, from beginning to end, are indeed written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady became increasingly severe. Yet even in his illness he foolishly did not seek the LORD, but only the physicians. So in the forty-first year of his reign, the LORD let Asa die of his uncured disease, in the impotent hands of his idolized physicians. 2 Chronicles 16:7-13

Hello Anthony. As you probably know, LORD Jesus is the Great Physician of His faithful Saints (i.e. His Bride's wise virgins). Disease is biblically reckoned to be caused by the idolatrous spiritual phenomena of unbelief that inherently indwells a sinful, self-willed, 'old wineskin' heart.

Like you, Anthony, King Asa didn't see his idolatrous heart's foolish trust in western medicine. Like him, you blindly see man trusting in man-made (transhumanist) technology and drugs with no spiritual considerations whatsoever. I think you guys are confusing analogies with reality. For instance, when Yuval Harari says that god is not to be found in the middle east but instead he is to be found in silicone valley in Texas, Harari is setting forth an analogy comparing theocracy with technocracy. Yuval doesn't believe in God.

As Christians we must be careful not to confuse spirituality with science. Western medicine is not spiritual, there are no deities involved. People who trust in medical science are no different to people who trust in the auto industry. They see a product as being useful so they buy into into it.

Drawing an analogy is one thing but to confuse it as a statement of fact is an error.

Shamanism is a practise which is spiritual and where spirits are invoked by the Shaman. This is where we see medicine being spiritualised.
But the majority of people who take Fauci's advice are not intent on being spiritualised or practising idolatry. They are just gripped with fear and looking for guidance.

Those of us who can see the evil agenda behind the vaxx, know that Fauci is not to be trusted.

In order for people to be said to be practising idolatry there must be intent. I don't see that intent being present with the many people who just want to keep their jobs and provide for their families. They are not worshipping Fauci and they are not practising idolatry, in my view.

Rachel, in the past, you have expressed your contempt for those who have received the vaxx I don't think that you should do that.
I think what has prompted this contempt is that you are spiritualising their motives and wrongly concluding that these people are the enemy with their false god and their high priest etc.

Much of the demonic spirituality where people reach out to spirits for a cure is being practised in the apostate church and of course to a lesser extent in the Shamanic community etc.

But for the average Joe Soap the vaxx is seen as just another drug to help people stay healthy. His intentions don't go any deeper than that.

So there it is. Just my humble opinion for what it's worth.

My understanding of the words idol and worship come from the following translations when used in a biblical context in the verses mentioned.

In the bible the word idol means the following.
εἴδωλον eidolon {i'-do-lon} As mentioned in 1Corinthians 8:7
an image (i.e. for worship);

סֶמֶל cemel {seh'-mel} As mentioned in 2nd Chronicles 33:7 or סֵמֶל cemel {say'-mel} from an unused root meaning to resemble;
1) image, statue, idol

In 1Chronicles 16:29 the word 'worship' means the following
שָׁחָה shachah {shaw-khaw'} As mentioned in 1Chronicles 16:29
1) to bow down
1a) (Qal) to bow down
1b) (Hiphil) to depress (fig)
1c) (Hithpael)
1c1) to bow down, prostrate oneself
1c1a) before superior in homage 1c1b) before God in worship
1c1c) before false gods
1c1d) before angel

I have not practiced true Christian charity. Not consistently. Shame on me. But my anger is not against the vaxxed. I have refused to shun my parents and many others. My anger is reserved for the Mandatorians as Doug Wilson refers to them. See Blog and Mablog on YT. They made the wrong choice long before the shot came out when they chose to view their fellow man as nothing but a vector of contagious disease. Yes, we should pray for and forgive them.
Science is not a religion nor is it spiritualized. Scientism is.
You don't need an image to worship something. The Second Commandment forbids images. The First Commandment condemns having any god above God. You can break one without the other.

Hello John You say :
"Like you, Anthony, King Asa didn't see his idolatrous heart's foolish trust in western medicine. Like him, you blindly see man trusting in man-made (transhumanist) technology and drugs with no spiritual considerations whatsoever."

My response :

Hello John let me remind you that saint Luke the evangelist was a Greek physician. And let me remind you about when Paul advised Timothy to take a little wine for his stomach.
1Timothy 5:23 "Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities."

When a safe physical remedy is available then it is not unchristian to use it. I use a Ventolin inhaler occasionally because it is a safe effective treatment.
I eat food also as a way of keeping me healthy. I don't refuse to eat and then start crying to God to feed me when there is food readily available. Instead I thank God for His providence each time I have a meal.
There are good medicines and treatments out there and people should avail of them.
But I see the covid vaxx as poison from the devil and spoken out against many times .

The point I was making is that the average Joe Soap doesn't have that awareness. His motives are simple and not spiritual.

PS. I suspect that King Asa wasn't aware of " (transhumanist) technology " . I thought that I would just bring that little observation to your attention.

Modern medicine doesn't interpret the diseases and plagues of Egypt as being caused by the spiritual phenomena of God's judgment against Egypt's idolatry. Humanism's carnal-minded faith is inherently placed in the religion of Scientism rather than in the LORD.

King Asa, wake up, listen up!! Cursed are those carnal-minded virgins in Christ's Bride who foolishly put their life-saving faith in mere humans, who vainly rely on humanistic scientific knowledge and idolatrously turn their reprobate 'old wineskin' hearts away from trusting in the LORD. Jeremiah 17:5-7

The LORD is my guardian Good Shepherd; He is my Healer and the Provider of my eternal security. Therefore I will look in triumph on those foolish virgins who hate me. It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to be dependent wards who put their life-saving trust in Humanism's idolatrous Social Security System. It is better to wisely take refuge in the LORD than to foolishly trust in the Medicare provided by WHO's leading human scientists…. Psalm 118:8

You seem to get an idea into your head and then choose to ignore those scriptures that prove you wrong. You will never arrive at the truth if you read the scriptures with such bias.
The fact is, that there is good medicine out there which you can buy in the pharmacy and we should use it if necessary.

Faith in God does not mean becoming a brainless idiot who refuses to use the resources available in order to stay well and who cant discriminate between good medicine and bad medicine.

I will ask you a question did the couple mentioned below do the right thing ?

"A Pennsylvania couple who told police their faith forbids any kind of medical treatment were charged Wednesday in the pneumonia death of their 2-year-old daughter, becoming the latest members of their sect to be prosecuted for failing to take a dying child to a doctor.
The parents told investigators they belong to the Faith Tabernacle church in Mechanicsburg, and that "as part of their faith they do not believe in any medical treatment," including medication and doctors, according to court documents.

In Pennsylvania, at least 10 children whose parents belong to various branches of the fundamentalist sect have died of treatable illnesses in the last several decades. Several church members have been prosecuted for failing to seek medical care."

You have NOT bothered to read my past comments. I repeatedly have distinguished between the ordinary vaxxed and the vile, screaming lunatics who have done nothing but wish death on those wanting to live like human beings since lockdown started. Screaming curses at unmasked children in grocery stores, Mocking others' fearing bankruptcy and homelessness on SM. Turning neighbors in for going to church. Cutting friends and family out of your life for not getting the shot. Choosing to view your fellow men and women as nothing but walking diseases. These behaviors are NOT laudible simply because no incense or statues were involved.
Dr. Yuval Harari's transhumanism is NOT justified either even though he doesn't build a shrine with a graven image and burn incense to himself.

Ironic how the celebrity sociopaths they worship are fine with killing them. According to a Rasmussen poll they want us thrown into camps or prison for warning them.
Quit warning them. Let these traitors and sycophants of the Satanic Beast System die or become crippled for life. They want it. They deserve it.
Tell them to take their devil's mark and be accursed. Then cut these evil ones out of your life forever. Everyone who acts this way is beyond hope. Soon they shall be cast into the Lake of Fire for eternity. And the smoke of their torment will go up forever and ever. Amen.
Tell your great aunt that if she says hateful things to you for not obeying her Satanic psy opp delusion. See what happens to the old so-and-so. Don't try to be rational or kind. Be equally brutal and honest. Tell them they are of the devil and accursed and you never want to be around demoniacs again but will rejoice to see them and their master thrown into Hell for eternity. Then block them out forever. If you find out they get V injured or killed you can enjoy a hearty laugh. They wanted this nightmare. They are pure EVIL. Beyond redemption."
And in another comment you say ….

"He has a point. Here's another. Anyone who supported the lockdown and other crap deserves to be dehumanized and socially isolated forever, forced to hide their senseless, stupid faces with their bodies violated with transhuman experimental crap till they die.
Unworthy of any basic rights or freedoms. Unworthy of being treated with any shred of human dignity.
They chose to have the Satanic NWO reign over them.

I don't care what happens to those creatures. Especially if it makes them howl with pain and torment. They shouldn't have gone along with this wickedness.
If we could throw all of the wretches over to the devil and his people right now I'd gladly do it. They are just as guilty as the globalists for the role they have played in supporting this.
The local karen and snitch and sycophant of the New Normal posting on FB is just as guilty as Klaus Schwab. He couldn't have done this without them. A curse upon them all! They asked for this.
Look at how horribly they have behaved over the past two years. Helping destroy their neighbors' livelihoods and ensure the loneliness of others just to brag about how noble their cruelty was on SM.
These average citizens–selfish, paranoid cowards–are traitors to their friends/family/neighbors. Traitors to humanity and God Himself.
I have written all those former people out of my life forever. Evil and accursed."

RE: John, you seem to be saying that king Asa and I, are two of a kind, i.e., that we both have an idolatrous heart. I do not have an idolatrous heart.

Hello Anthony,

What the LORD is saying is that Asa, you, and I are inherently all one of a kind, i.e., that we all are formed in our mother's womb with a reprobate, carnal-minded 'old wineskin' heart that idolatrously rejects the New Wine of Christ's Holy Spirit. The LORD says: "The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked, without a cure. Who really knows how bad (idolatrously self-deluded) it is? I, the LORD, search the heart; I examine the mind to reward a man according to his way, by what his deeds deserve.... Jeremiah 17:9

The 'old wineskin' hearted Pennsylvania couple who belong to David Oyedepo's Canaanland Cult are being swept away under the strong delusion God has poured out in these Last Days (Revelation 12:15). The Angel of Light's demonic Toronto Blessing spirit has bewitched them to idolatrously follow David Oyedepo's religious spirit rather than trusting in the LORD'S Holy Spirit (i.e. the 'New Wine').

Hanani the seer sharply rebuked King Asa of Judah for idolatrously attempting to save his life by trusting in the help of pagan military forces for victory, and for his trust in 'modern-day' medicine for healing his incurable disease rather than trusting in God's miraculous deliverance. Hanani told him, "Because you have idolatrously relied on the pagan king of Aram and not on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand. Were not the Cushites and Libyans a vast army with many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hand. For the eyes of the LORD roam to and fro over all the earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose (repentant 'new wineskin') hearts are fully devoted to Him. You have acted foolishly in this matter. From now on, therefore, you will be at war." Asa was angry with the seer and became so enraged over this matter that he put the man in prison. And at the same time, Asa oppressed some of the people. 2 Chronicles 16;7-
